Out[7]: 'House Dem Aide: We Didn't Even See Comey's Letter Until Jason Chaffetz Tweeted It By Da rrell Lucus on October 30, 2016 Subscribe Jason Chaffetz on the stump in American Fork, Utah ( image courtesy Michael Jolley, available under a Creative Commons-BY license) \nW ith apologies to Keith Olbermann, there is no doubt who the Worst Person in The World is this week-FBI Director James Comey. But according to a House Democratic aide, it looks l ike we also know who the second-worst person is as well. It turns out that when Comey se nt his now-infamous letter announcing that the FBI was looking into emails that may be r elated to Hillary Clinton's email server, the ranking Democrats on the relevant committe es didn't hear about it from Comey. They found out via a tweet from one of the Republica n committee chairmen. \nAs we now know, Comey notified the Republican chairmen and Democ ratic ranking members of the House Intelligence, Judiciary, and Oversight committees tha t his agency was reviewing emails it had recently discovered in order to see if they con tained classified information. Not long after this letter went out, Oversight Committee Chairman Jason Chaffetz set the political world ablaze with this tweet. FBI Dir just inf ormed me, "The FBI has learned of the existence of emails that appear to be pertinent to the investigation." Case reopened \n- Jason Chaffetz (@jasoninthehouse) October 28, 2016 \nOf course, we now know that this was not the case . Comey was actually saying that it was reviewing the emails in light of "an unrelated case"-which we now know to be Anthony Weiner's sexting with a teenager. But apparently such little things as facts didn't matt er to Chaffetz. The Utah Republican had already vowed to initiate a raft of investigatio ns if Hillary wins-at least two years' worth, and possibly an entire term's worth of the m. Apparently Chaffetz thought the FBI was already doing his work for him-resulting in a tweet that briefly roiled the nation before cooler heads realized it was a dud. \nBut ac cording to a senior House Democratic aide, misreading that letter may have been the leas t of Chaffetz' sins. That aide told Shareblue that his boss and other Democrats didn't e ven know about Comey's letter at the time-and only found out when they checked Twitter.
"Democratic Ranking Members on the relevant committees didn't receive Comey's letter unt il after the Republican Chairmen. In fact, the Democratic Ranking Members didn't receive it until after the Chairman of the Oversight and Government Reform Committee, Jason Chaf fetz, tweeted it out and made it public." \nSo let's see if we've got this right. The FB I director tells Chaffetz and other GOP committee chairmen about a major development in a potentially politically explosive investigation, and neither Chaffetz nor his other co lleagues had the courtesy to let their Democratic counterparts know about it. Instead, a ccording to this aide, he made them find out about it on Twitter. \nThere has already be en talk on Daily Kos that Comey himself provided advance notice of this letter to Chaffe tz and other Republicans, giving them time to turn on the spin machine. That may make fo r good theater, but there is nothing so far that even suggests this is the case. After a ll, there is nothing so far that suggests that Comey was anything other than grossly inc ompetent and tone-deaf. \nWhat it does suggest, however, is that Chaffetz is acting in a way that makes Dan Burton and Darrell Issa look like models of responsibility and bipart isanship. He didn't even have the decency to notify ranking member Elijah Cummings about something this explosive. If that doesn't trample on basic standards of fairness, I do n't know what does. \nGranted, it's not likely that Chaffetz will have to answer for thi s. He sits in a ridiculously Republican district anchored in Provo and Orem; it has a Co ok Partisan Voting Index of R+25, and gave Mitt Romney a punishing 78 percent of the vot e in 2012. Moreover, the Republican House leadership has given its full support to Chaff etz' planned fishing expedition. But that doesn't mean we can't turn the hot lights on h im. After all, he is a textbook example of what the House has become under Republican co ntrol. And he is also the Second Worst Person in the World. About Darrell Lucus \nDarrel
